LEE FOR THE SENATE. THE GENERAL ANNOUNCES THAT HE IS A CANDIDATE.

HAS NO IDEA OF WITHDRAWING.

Go Into Detnils, But Says That His Declaration About Canvassing the State Still Stands-May Be Several Candidates.

However many candidates there may be for the United States Senate next Winter to succeed Hon, Thomas S. Martin it is certain General Fitzhugh Lee will be one of them.

General Lee himself is authority for the statement that he will be a candidate.

"I stated emphatically a month or two ago that I should run for the Senate" he said to a Dispatch representative at the Westmoreland Club yesterday after-

"There has been a great many statements made since then regarding my in tentions," he continued, "but I can say as emphatically now as I did then that I will be a candidate. Everything I said on the subject then holds good now."

General Lee was asked when he ex-pected to be able to return to Savannah. "I cannot state certainly," he said, "probably Wednesday night. Governor Tyler will probably accompany me. I do not know when my corps will sail, pro-bably the latter part of November. Mrs Lee's improvement is steady, and I feel I can soon be able to leave her without any apprehension of a relapse during my

THE GENERAL LOOKING WELL. General Lee is looking remarkably well. He was seated in front of a glowing fire in the writing-room at the club, reading his paper when the newspaper man en-tered. His greeting was of that frankly cordial character which has made him ens of thousands of friends wherever nen have come under its spell. Although he has stood the trying climale of Cuba and Florida in the sickliest season, and has never seemed to suffer in the least. yet during his recent few weeks' stay 's Richmond there has come a better color into his face, and altogether he appears in finer health than he did a month ago. His gray hair and moustache and give the impression that he is older than he is. His quick step and rollicking conversation makes one think him much younger. His movement is indicative of strength; His every sentence expresses energy and vitality The campaign he proposes to make it Virginia next year promises to be one rarely equalled in point of aggressiveness in Virginia. He impresses one as a man just in the prime of intellectual and physical strength. Virginians remember what a vigorous fighter he was in the days when he canyassed the State from days when he canvassed the State from the mountains to the sea and went into the Governor's mansion by a majority of rearly 20,000. His campaign next year would probably be a stronger one than that of 1889. As he used to say from the hustings in those days, he was not ac-customed to speaking, but since that time he has had much experience. The people knew of him then as a dashing cavalryman; there is scarcely a voter in Virginia now who does not know face, scarcely one, indeed, who has not hurrahed as he appeared on a platform. General Lee has said he will canvass every county before the election of mem-bers of the Legislature next fall. He and his friends will work to have candi-dates instructed to vote for him for the Senate. Whether he will get a majority is to be the great question in Virginia

FIGHT BETWEEN HIM AND MARTIN General Lee's chief opponent will, of course, be Senator Thomas S. Martin, though he may not be the only one. Hon. R. Walton Moore, of Fairfax, has already announced his candidacy. Attorney-General Montague has not as yet done so, but there are many people who would like to see him wearing the toga of a senator from the Old Dominion. There may be other candidates, but it is no disparagement of anybody to say that at present, at any rate, Lee and Martin are far in the forefront so far as all other aspirants are concerned.

Senator Martin has been very active in Virginia politics this year ,and he is said to have made many friends. He has spoken in various counties of the State and his manner of presenting Democratic doctrine has always won the attention and the applause of the crowds.

MAY BE THERE LONG. General Lee is not able to state when he will return from Cuba. Indeed, it is impossible, apparently, for anybody to state when the need of American soldiers in the island will no longer be necessary General Lee has said that he does believe there should be such an of as military governor of Cuba. The army, he says, will simply preserve the peace until the Cubans organize and establish a stable government, affording adequate protection to life and property. After that the troops will be withdrawn.

JOHN LEE AYRES THE MAN.

Mystery of the Saturday Night Cremation is Wiped Out.

The only human being who knows exactly how Rosalie Smith, the young col ored woman, came to her death in Belvin's alley, Saturday night, by being burned with kerosene oil from an exploding lamp, is now in the city jail and will be in the Police Court this morning to answer the charge of causing ner death. He is Jonn Lee Ayres, tall-6 feet 3 inches, perhaps—and black.

On the night of the cremation of Rosa lie Smith a man was heard to be dis-puting and wrestling with her, and he was seen to run down the steps and dis-appear in the alley, his coat sleeve in a blaze. Nothing more was seen of him until about 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon he came into the Second Police Station and told Officer Bailey he wanted to give himself up; that he was the man who ran from the dead woman's house.

Two hours later he appeared before the Coroner's jury and stated that he had met the woman on Broad street Saturday met the woman on broad street saturdly night, and had gone home with her at her request. There, he says, she took some money from him and refused to give it back to him. He tried to wrest it is to be a support of the large of rom her but she hurled the lamp at him It burst, and the burning fluid was thrown over both of them. Her clothes took fire and so did his, but he escaped burning very severely by beating the flames out as he ran away. His arm and his face were both slightly burned. This is the substance of his story.

Maggie Brown, a woman who has a room very near that occupied by Rosalie Smith, tells a very different story, how-She says she saw the man throw the lamp, or is under the impression tha she did, and she is sure she heard loud talking from both of them.

The Coroner's jury gave their verdict that the woman came to her death by her own hands, and exonerated Ayres. Ayres was in the Police Court yesterday morning, but the case went over until this morning. Mr. George E. Wise is counsel for the prisoner.

YOUTH RUN OVER AND KILLED.

Thomas Dolan Crushed Beneath Moving Train Sunday Afternoon. Thomas Dolan, the 16-year-old son of Mr. John F. Dolan, who lives on Holly street, Oregon Hill, was run over and killed by a freight train on the James River Division of the Chesapeake and Ohio Sunday afternoon about 4 o'clock.

As soon as possible after the accident young Dolan was removed to the Retreat for the Sick, but the shock on his system had been too great, and at 2 o'clock yesterday morning he breathed his last.

The remains were taken to McDonough's undertaking rooms, where they were prepared for burfal, after which they were removed to the home, on Holly street. The funeral will take place from Sacred Heart church this morning at 10 o'clock. Young Dolan was a very bright youth, and was held in high esteem by all who knew him, and his unfortunate all who knew him, and his unfortunate death is greatly deplored, DULNESS AT THE COURT-HOUSE. Carter is Hopeful-His Case Will Be Tried on the 15th Instant.

Yesterday was a dull day about the Henrico court-house. The magistrates and constabulary officers had but little to do, and the officials of the courts were occupied only in the transaction of routine matters.

Carter, the slayer of Charles F. Moore, was visited by several of his relatives. He is bearing up bravely, and seems to feel that he will be acquitted when his case comes up for trial. It is hardly likely that there will be any postponement of his case from this term. It has been set for trial on the 15th, and on that day it will probably be gone into.

Oscar Betanbough, charged with at-tempting to shoot Ed. Jackson, was sent to the grand jury by Magistrates Friend The supervisors will meet to-day and Organist at St. Andrew's.

Professor C. L. Peticolas, after serving as organist in the Third Presbyterian church for nearly eleven years, accepts the position of organist at St. Andrew's Protestant Episcopal church, corner of Beverly and Laurel streets. His service with the latter begins Sunday, November 6th. Rev. Charies R. Hyde, referring yesterday to Mr. Peticolas's charge, said: "His leaving our church is greatly regretted by the choir, congregation, and pastor, but he accepts a position more advantageous to himself. He leaves the position which he has so faithfully filled with the best wishes of all our people. His cheerful response to every call for extra service and his unfailing prompt ness and constancy have rendered his services doubly valuable. Professor Peti-colas's taste and skill as a musician will make him a valuable acquisition to St. Andrew's.'

Inspector Ould and Smuggling.

Entertainment by Children. A most beautiful and unique entertain-ment was given by the ladies of Chestnut Hill and Highland Park, for the benefit of Epiphany Episcopal church, on Thursday night last. It was a "Mother Goose Operetta." rendered by about thirty-eight little children. The music was bright and catchy and the little tots sang and acted their parts in a beautiful manner. There were several encores. The costumes were beautiful and appropriate. There was a very appreciative audience. A request has been made to the ladies to repeat it.

News of the Courts. In the Law and Equity Court yesterday suit was instituted by Mary E. Rose against P. J. McGowan, Joseph Heppert, C. W. Clemmitt, B. M. Batkins, and Charles H. Langford, partners trading as the Richmond Rent-Purchase Society; damages, $300.

ROBSON AT THE WOMAN'S CLUB.

Actor and His Wife Special Guests of the Evening. The meeting of the Woman's Club yes terday afternoon was made especially interesting by the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Robson, who were the guests of the club. Mr. Robson gave a short talk, after which both he and his wife sans delightfully. In the course of his talk he alluded to the fact that forty-five years ago he was playing in Richmond in a company which contained Jefferson, Clark, Adams, Bangs, and Boniface, all of whom afterwards became stars, and that this company was the beginning of his theatrical career, Mr. Robson's whole appearance is so young, that it is hard to believe that he started his career forty-five years ago.

Mr. Robson remarked upon the revolu tion of society as regards the theatrical profession. He said not very many years ago Joseph Jefferson received an invitation to a fancy ball in the city of Richmond, and prepared an appropriate costume for it. But at the last moment the ladies of the city came together and decided that it would not be "au fait" tor an actor to attend the ball. There was great perplexity over a way to tell this to Mr. Jefferson without hurting his feelings, but at last they told him that no "strangers were allowed." Mr. Robeson showed the marked difference between that time and this. Now actors are received as honored guests by the best people of the city. Mrs. Robson charmed every one by her unaffected manner.

Mrs. Horace Hawes presided at the tea table, and tea was served by Misses Mary Lewis, Stringfellow, and Morgan. Among the distinguished guests were Mrs. Sams, of Baltimore; Miss Rebecca Davis, of Baltimore; Miss Poulson, Mrs. Lindsay Patton, of Japan; Mrs. R. W. Allen, Miss Allen, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Mayo, of Williamsburg; Mrs. Percy Pickerell, of New York; Miss Barrand Miss Ford, of Washington. Dr. Woodrow Wilson will give a lecture at the club to-morrow afternoon.
